

Clackamas YMCA Incident and Concern Form

Please fill out and return to 6400 SE Lake Rd Milwaukie, OR 97222. During game play, no matter what YMCA sport, coaches, players and parents are expected to maintain a high standard of conduct and display good sportsmanship at all times. Yelling screaming, swearing, berating, willfully violating rules, etc., will not be tolerated. This applies to before, during and after games. Once the game is over, it's over, done with, and you move on, no matter how unhappy someone is with the outcome. The YMCA is all about fun for the kids, positive competition, teaching kids the skills of the sport, and the coaches are to be good role models to their players at all times. Parents are to be supportive of players from both teams, and winning should be kept in perspective.

Coach, Player and Parent Conduct:

Whenever a Coach, Parent or Player displays attitudes, actions, and/or conduct which is contrary to YMCA rules, regulations and philosophy, the parties involved will be counseled by the YMCA staff. Subsequent or continued acts may result in temporary or permanent suspension from the YMCA.
